

Season of high Collars.

Flowers, Buttons, Plaid Taffeta Trimmings, Wide Cuffs and Waistcoats are all Dominant Features of Summer Fashions.

New York, March 28.—"Where did you get that coat?" demanded the hostess, holding Maisie at arm's length, after effusively kissing and embracing the wanderer from the south. It was indeed a lovely coat, and the eyes of the lady in the soft crepe de chine house with approximative and the corsage bow made of bronze green velvet and the corsage bow made of bronze green to the left green tille and set up high on the left.

udice tending, I confess, toward covert, tulips."

"It is not in human nature to be satisfied," solemnly insisted Mrs. Van Knickerbocker, adjusting the huge bunch of violets at the breast of her gown. "Aside from the home spun suit I mention, I want a sweet blue cashmere home dress I saw this morning. It had such a well shaped skirt and against the pastel blue background was run two stitched down bands of dark blue taffeta, rising near the left knee into a pretty lattice pattern out and eat with whipped cream or a soft custard made from the volks of the eggs.

A can of grated pineapple sweetened to taste poured on half a box of gelatine, soaked for five minutes in cold water, then dissolved by stirring in half a cup of boiling water, makes another delightful change. A pint of whipped cream should be beaten in at the last, and the whole turned into a mold to set. Half of this recipe is sufficient for The Reign of Embroidery. and allower bear, and the eyes of the year, and the eyes of the year, and the cores of bronze green velvet bands of dark blue taffeta, rising near the left knee into a pretty lattice pattern flanked by two ornaments done bronze green tulle and set up high on the left knee into a pretty lattice pattern flanked by two ornaments done bronze green tulle and set up high on the left knee into a pretty lattice pattern flanked by two ornaments done in white embroidery on fine white linen. The ingratiating waist had its fronts arrayed in that enchanting frock on a spring afternoon, when this room is full of sunshine of daffodils and yellow of dark silk, and silk edged tabs of cashmere fastened down with wee blue trimmings of darkest green taffeta striped, Scotch fashion, with apple green and yellow. I've seen just such a suit, and my whole soul yearns to possess it."

"But you extravagant creature, you are wearing now a brand new and extractions of the striped of the s are wearing now a brand new and ex-ceedingly fashionable gown," laughed then beat in the stiffened whites of three eggs and a half saltspoonful of salt. Turn into a mold and when cold turn out and eat with whipped cream beef juice (aspic jelly is then formed), eggs, cream, milk or any strong nourishment. The home caterer must remember that gelatine really feeds the tissues. This hint should cause all sorts of delicious jellies, both of meat and fruit, etc., to delight the eye and palate fruit, etc., to delight the eye and palate of the jeded family appetite.

and phrenology both a little, as a side interests.

Some Studio Ghosts.

(New York Press.)

Greatest of all the word have been the court farenteering in the world have been the court farenteering. There is a clever young enterprise, There is a clever young eighteenth centuries.

Soup made from split peas is nourishing, digestible and if properly made, also so appetizing in appearance that it will tempt the daintiest. The secret of its proper cooking is the binding of the particles together in one smooth whole. Strange to say, this is so little known that, instead of this good soup proving a family favorite, it is often scarcely tolerated. If the reader will follow the rule given below carefully perfect reare assured.

Pick over a cupful of dried split peas and soak over night in three pints of cold water softened with a pinch of bicold water softened with a pinch of bi-carbonate of soda. In the morning strain, cover with the same amount of softened water as before and simmer until the peas are dissolved. As the water boils away add enough to keep the amount of three pints, and occa-sionally scrape the sides of the sauce-pan and stir the whole with a wooden spoon. When done strain through a soup sieve, put on the fire again, and when boiling stir it into a saucepan in which a tablespoonful of sifted flour has been cooked, in a large one of but-ter brought to boiling point. This may be returned to the soup kettle. and be returned to the soup kettle, and when all has come to the boil and well stirred, hot milk, cream or water may be added, to make it just the thickness liked, and whether a thick puree or a liked, and whether a thick pures or a cream soup, the butter and flour will hold the particles together and the desired smoothness will be there. A teaspoonful of sugar is generally deemed an improvement, but must be measured scantily, as there must be no suspicion of its presence. Salt and white pepper to taste. If the butter is salted that must be allowed for.

a half they should be tender enough to mash smoothly. Throw into the collander and press with the back of a production of a genuine waterfall, rocks and all, that the ghost visited. and just as popular the enamental and just as popular the popular than the butth as popular the butth as popular the butth the best embroidery lawn yoke in the little with the best embroidery lawn yoke in the little with the best embroidery lawn yoke in the little with the best embroidery lawn yoke in the little with the best embroidery lawn yoke in the little by pressing. Seasch with salt, place in a very fiot frying pan with two tablespoonfuls of boiling butter, stir until hot throughout, then smooth down and allow about ten minutes for the bottom to brown. Run a broad bladed knife to the center often to prevent burning by letting the butter run down. Roll out into a hot

Lentils as an Entree. vegetable, drain as above, mix with half a cup of washed rice, the same amount each of chopped ham and chicken, or instead of the letter of th chicken, or instead of the latter any instead of the Roman silks and flosses that have been familiar so long. One distinctive usage is seen in bodices of black satin or liberty silk, made over white linings. If it is arranged with tucks—either bias or straight, the interspaces are decorated with a working of the double zephyr. The decoration of the double zephyr and the double zephyr and the double zephyr and the double zephyr and the decoration of the double zephyr and the dou cold meat at hand, season to taste with paradoxical to say so, but there are terspaces are decorated with a working of the double zephyr. The decoration never represents flowers, leaves or similar designs. Usually it is worked in a cat stitch and as an added touch when the needle points out of each side of the goods the zephyr is thrown about the goods the goods the goods the goods the goods the zephyr is thrown about the goods the zephyr is thrown about the goods th vinegar or lemon juice. The lentils, rice and meat may now be taken from the sauce may be poured over the whole liberty silk made over cream white. It was elaborately worked with black double zephyr.

Jellied Apples (Very Good).

On rather fancy shirt waists this work, though slight, gives them a touch a medium oven with a close fitting plate on top held down by a weight. They should remain in the oven for three hours. When cool turn carefully into a glass dish and put in a cold place for several hours, when the apple slices will be found imbedded in a clear With a merengue on top, either with or without boiled custard or cream as sauce, a delightful variation of this dish may be served.

THE ADVERTISING GHOST TURNS IDEAS INTO COIN

"You should see our ghost! She's a the manufacturer is recommending salt. Turn into a mold and when cold turn out and eat with whipped cream or a soft custard made from the volks of the eggs.

A can of grated pineapple sweetened to taste poured on half a box of gelatine, soaked for five minutes in cold water, then dissolved by stirring in half a cup of boiling water, makes another delightful change. A pint of whipped cream should be beaten in at the last, and the whole turned into a mold to set. Half of this recipe is sufficient for a family of four.

Gelatine is held in high favor again by food specialists, when used with heef juice (aspice tells) is then formed).

"You should see our ghost! She's a great one," said the manager of a "publicity bureau," lately. "Good worker? Well, no, I can't put it that way. The office ghost never works, you know, but as a suggester of ideas, schemes for presenting and pushing matters, she can beat the ordinary designer two to one. A man couldn't begin to hatch out all the clever inklings that girl can in a given time, even if he made the place blue with smoke. It's initiative works she does. Her quirks and notions come to her in the night, she says, and she goes round disposing of the place blue with smoke. It's initiative works she does. Her quirks and notions come to her in the night, she says, and she goes round disposing of the place blue with smoke. It's initiative works she does. She k.Tows issues and values and ism't apt to take risks, and she is certain to have friends. The people she has worked for watch her career. The work of the place blue with smoke it's initiative works she does. The night, she says, and she goes round disposing of the place blue with smoke it's initiative works she does. The manufacturer is recommending the ghost as having exceptional enterprise and deserving to get along. Occasionally it happens that a ghost has to have a backer. She makes clear headway with the manufacturer is recommending the ghost as having exceptional enterprise and deserving to docasionally it happens that a ghost has to have a backer. Sh by food specialists, when used with beef juice (aspic jelly is then formed), eggs, cream, milk or any strong nour eggs, cream, milk or any strong nour rest, and I've often wanted to get interest, and I've often wanted to get

The Way She Works.

she has worked for watch her career. They look and wonder at her aptitude an idea in it all and the church people will approve.' We executed that prompting on the spot, and it was a success. The man who had my place three years ago is in the B. asylum,' went on the manufacturer of ideas. "The one who had it before him has paresis. I am strong and well now and I attribute my health to the number of ghosts I have about. The best one is a young woman who never had her foot in a city until six months ago. She was living at a little way station in Vermont and was known to one of our head artists, to whom she had given ideas occasionally. Through his instrumentality she came to town and now she is accumulating ghost's love fast and getting down to the true prin-ciples of the trade." OLIVE F. GUNBY.

WOMEN GAMBLERS.

The Way She Works. corporation, for the production and dis-"The ghost is useless as to any prac- posal of ideas. Ideas relating to every- prayed woman gambler that the world praved woman gambler that the world has ever seen. At one time Mme. de Montespan had a great run of luck at basset, and that made Louis XIV feel good, for then he could borrow of her winnings. But when her luck turned and she lost as heavily as she had won, the draft on Louis got to be so great that he abolished the game. One night when things were coming her way she bet a sum equal to $200,000 on the turn of a single card, and the king got grumpy because no one had the sand to cover the bet. There came a New Year's night when the madame lost nearly $900,000 at hoca, and on another night she raised her losses to a million.

Crossing the channel, the most fa-mous woman gambler of England was Nell Gwynn, the favorite of Charles II. In one year her losses were $300,000, which the king paid, His last words as he lay on his dying bed are historic: "Don't let poor Nell starve." But "poor Nell," as long as the game was fierce, Nell," as long as the game was fierce, could look out for herself pretty well. Such a little loss as that of $25,000 to her rival, the Duchess of Cleveland, was a mere bagatelle to her. Still, perhaps Charles II was right in his solicitude for "poor Nell," for the Duchess of Mazarin, niece of the cardinal, died in absolute want, after she had lost $5,000,000 at the game.

One may scour American history and find scarcely a celebrated woman gambler. Our women, when they gamble at all, play like ladies at cards and dabble a little in stocks. To be sure, we've sent some winners to Monte

A GROUP OF EASTER HATS.

A GROUP OF EASTER HATS.

ON 1. A value straw walking shape trimmed with accordion plated green chiffon and black velvet ribbon. (No. 2). The bears are being strained with accordion plated green chiffon and black velvet ribbon. (No. 2). The strained with accordion plated green chiffon and plated knife from her belt and plunged it into her heart. At least it may be said for her that none of the gambling favorites of Europe had the nerve to end her life as Lonna did.

SHE DONNED HER TAILOR COSTUME AND BETOOK HERSELF TO

is about to move into more commodious quarters owing to the popularity gained through her ghostly intervention. All she did was to put a pretty nymph under the veil of waters, washing her hair with the magic cake of soap. And

Her Many Commissions.

partments of big business houses. And although if you ran across her in the corridor or going up in the elevator, you might mistake her for an ordinary young horse heavy and discovered the same and orderers in the various lines of trade find their inspiration stale, spirityoung home body, out doing an errand commissions from three separate par-ties in a single transaction. It sounds daily cheer, and there are others inhabiting tasteful suburban cottages built with the savings from their income. Proofs exist that the advertising shade's profession and perquisites ar on the upgrade financially, and occasionally one hears of a widowed ghost or a newly married, or about to be married ghost, working as effectively and dispassionately as her free lance

A ghost lately made a neat thing in the matter of skirt binding. It was a new sort of skirt binding that she heard of in her spirit like way, but a binding that, whatever its merits, was overshadowed by older and more prominent brands. The ghost elected in her peculiar mission to advance this new-comer among bindings to a front rank piace in the trade. She thought by day and she thought by night as to the best design in print, picture and method, of giving that obscure binding deserved multicity. Having decided on a unique publicity. Having decided on a unique and eye fixing idea, she donned her discreetly capable looking tailor costume and betook herself to the manu his ear, got his favor and his order fo her idea and his commission to emp such an artist and such a writer would do credit to her conception. Later when the ghost's idea was an accomplished fact in black and white, What is Shiloh?

A grand old remedy for Cough, Colds and Consumption; used through the world for half a century, has cured innumerable cases of incipient consumption and relieved many in advanced stages. If you are not satisfied with the results we will refund your money. Price, 25 cts., 56 cts. and $1.

For sale at Z. C. M. I. Drug Dept.

A grand old remedy for Cough, apt and taking, she held it before the manufacturer's eyes and besought him to let her order the necessary lithographing of the duplicates and also to "place" this bid for the skirt binding's popularity in cach current publications as she saw fit. The manufacturer agreed, seeing that this was a wise and long headed ghost, and now several purposes have been accomplished. The obscure skirt binding is seeing the light. The artist and the advertisement writer were happy at having the order.

Young Mothers.

Shiloh?

gestion In Her Presence.

"publicity agency," as the manufactory of ideas is called. "We are all hard at thinking out things week in and week out and a bright, original idea doesn't came to use once a fortnight. The ghost is fresh. Thinking is fun to her. Now the other day I had a large poster for an evangelist's meeting on hand. Something bright and attractive it must be, both of him. He gives a general thing bright and attractive it must be, but fairly loaded down with announce ments, because the session was to last a lone taken from between the enormous

The Value of Ideas. The advertising ghost has been conjured of necessity and is a new comer in commercial ranks. The demand of the age is for ideas. Ideas to be adapt-CLAM-EATERS' FEAST.

Recent Storms Have Furnished It For New Jerseyites.

(Chicago Inter Ocean.) Recent severe storms along the Jersey coast in one way have been a bonanza to the shore clam eaters. The ambitious and the advertising manager welcomes her word pictures. Even if he can't use exactly the idea she suggests her words rouse some dormant fancies in his own brain and the two fraternize into something practical.

great seas kicked up by the long continued and heavy gales have tumbled out upon the beach enormous quantities of the big sea clams, which in calm weather are almost a rarity, and even when the sea is ordinarily rough are by no means over plentiful. great seas kicked up by the long con-

have been driving to the shore and gathering up wagonloads and taking them back to their homes for their own family to use or for distribution among neighbors who either had not time or facilities for getting to the beach and helping themselves. The clams have simply been gathered in by the ton, for, of course, the beachcombers themselves were on deck and took care that all the clams did not go inland.

were on deck and took care that all the clams did not go inland.

Torn from their beds far out from the shore, the big shellfish were caught up by the huge, incoming rollers and pitched and tossed in the surf until thousands of them were left high and dry upon the sand. But the biggest finds were in the undertow, where men and boys stood in high-top rubber boots scooping out the big fellows with crab nets. At times and in certain favorable places the beach was so densely packed with these fishers that they were in one another's way. To step out of your place for a moment was to lose it. place for a moment was to lose it. Those who were in the business for keeps had to have assistants standing back of them on the sands, to whom they tossed their finds as they gathered back of them on the sands, to whom they tossed their finds as they gathered them in out of the surf. The assistant piled them up in heaps and watched over them until there was enough for a wagonload, when the clam fisher quit and gave his place to somebody else. The big sea clam, Macira gigantea, although not so sweet as the soft clam from the mud bottoms, when properly cooked, is an article of food that is by no means to be despised. You will not, perhaps, have quite so keen an appetite for him if you see him when he is taken out of the shell, for he is not handsome to look at. To be sure, he is like any other hard shell clam for that matter, for, like the massive woman assthete in "Patience," there is too much of him. He gives a general soft parks the light impression with the comment of him. He gives a general soft parks the light impression when the clam fisher quit and gave his place to somebody else. The big sea clam, Macira gigantea, although not so sweet as the soft clam from the mud bottoms, when properly cooked, is an article of food that is by no means to be despised. You will not, perhaps, have quite so keen an appetite for him if you see him when he is taken out of the shell, for he is not handsome to look at. To be sure, he is like any other hard shell clam for that matter, for, like the massive woman assthete in "Patience," there is impossible to wear a collar too h and a jabot too full or long." Which accounts for this extensive augement." half questioned the hos-taking between her white fingers he edge of the large, delicate Marie anoinette lace bow that feathered full and far under Maisie's white chin.

Larburnum Yellow. xactly," was the answer, as the selected the easiest chair in the pushed it forward to the tea ta-pushed it forward to the tea ta-irew off her heavy white walking s and began comfortably munch-slice of buttered toast, "and, by tay, Pauline, I've been to such a nating opening this afternoon of and radiant spring things. There a little frock that spoke to me of a every tint and fold, for you wowith ashen blonde hair can carry ything well and larburnum yellow lighter cloth than the foundation garment, is the dominant law in tailor-made rules. Please observe that my cuffs are very wide, for sleeves must slope out as they reach the hand and then you see my revers turn back to reveal a vest. I give you these points gratis, my dear, in case your own pet and particular maker of cloth things is net quite up to time. A vest of Persian figured panne or silk, studded with they steel beads, is of the mode modish, and my man, who has been in Paris

A Perfect Gray Homespun. "There is one discovery I've made or myself," announced Mrs. Van foulard frock, "and that is that plaid foulard frock, "and that is that plaid taffeta in pipings and neckties, cuffs, etc., is going to be worn to the most interesting extent. From the author an accordion pleated crepe depetitional of equally ripe a dye, the bottom of the undarders. down the law to Pauline, I guess that she has been indulging her reprehensible passion for the vanities of this world at some of the dressmakers' openings, and so have I. That is while from the bust and fulling the waist line was drawn the other of the bodice, wrought of wool, Decorating Fancy Shirt Waists With Double Zephyr Cat Stitching.

A Black Etamine Walking Dress.

There is a new note in the bodices of fashionable gowns these days, and although one that would have seemed incongruous to our grandmothers, it is extremely pretty. It is double zephyr worsted, used to lattice work and em-broider certain parts of fancy shirts ing of the double zephyr. The decora-tion never represents flowers, leaves or it several times and fastened so as to form a French knot. The dress goods under the worsted is then cut away and allows the underlining to show through only slightly, as the cat-stitching was only slightly, as the cat-stitching was of the sauce thrown over. or the sauce may be poured over the worsted was of the sauce may be poured over the worsted was of the sauce may be poured over the worsted. many mixed colors, through which yellow and purple predominated. Another charming bodice was of cherry colored liberty silk made over cream white. It was elaborately worked with black of style and novelty. The edges, also of fancy and adjustable collars, with ear points and pointed cuffs, are being finished with double zephyr. At first they are edged with a satin ribbon of color in contrast to the collar and on the ribbon the worsted work is executed. This work is quickly done and it is greatly in its favor that no and h is greatly in the advance designing is necessary. A straight eye and an adaptability for such work is all that is required.

It is also feasible to fill in many sharp little corners on gowns with a fan-shaped bit, the stitches being long and graduated. Again the old Roman block esign is used on straps to cross over the vests of bodices. By those that know about up-to-date gowns, it seems vests of bodices. as though even more attention was paid to what is new in wrinkles, as such little points as this one about worsted are called, than to the excel-of the quality of their goods.

an- Seven Good Recipes to Help Overato the waist line was drawn the other nothing smarter this season, be sure lily tired of ordinary puddings the fol- cts., 50 cts. and last of the bodice, wrought of wool, to have your necktie, girdle and cuff lowing will be found novel and deli- I. Drug Dept.

ed from everything under the sea, upon the earth or in the heavens are sought trade find their inspiration stale, spirit-less. The ghost lives outside away from it all. She is young, enthusiastic, ambitious and the advertising manager

Young Mothers.

FOR JADED APPETITES.

Croup is the terror of thousands of young mothers, because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Croup. It has never been known to fail. The worst when the family declares itself heartily tired of ordinary puddings the following will be found novel and deli
Young Mothers.

Croup is the terror of thousands of young mothers, because its outbreak is so agonizing and frequently fatal. Shiloh's Cough and Consumption Cure acts like magic in cases of Croup. It has not in paying the advertisement writer were happy at having the order and in paying the ghost for their satisfaction. The lithographer cheerfully cover it with our staff designer and she shells of a single immediately solved the problem, 'Have the background pale blue,' she said, to him) an order for an idea illustrative of unique stove polishing, and the various periodicals paid the ghost their reaching from end to end. All the annuncements can be written in rows of unique stove polishing, and the various periodicals paid the ghost their reaching from end to end. All the annuncements can be written in rows of unique stove polishing, and the various periodicals paid the ghost their reaching from end to end. All the annuncements can be written in rows of unique stove polishing, and the various periodicals paid the ghost their reaching from end to end. All the annuncements can be written in rows of unique stove polishing, and the advertisement writer were happy at having the ghost for their satisfaction. The lithographer cheerfully when the satisfaction. The lithographer cheerfully cover it with our staff designer and she shells of a single with background pale blue,' she said, the problem, 'Have a tremendous scarlet cross of unique stove polishing, and the various periodicals paid the ghost their satisfaction. The lithographer cheerfully week. The ghost of the in problem, 'Have a t